1841

Amgueddfa Abertawe Yn Agor
Swansea Museum Opens

1848

Ganed Daniel James
Daniel James is Born

1851

Mae'r Arddangosfa Fawr yn Agor
yn Crystal Palace
The Great Exhibition Opens
at Crystal Palace

Mae'r cyfrifiad yn datgelu maint y gefnogaeth ar gyfer eglwys Anghytdyrfuriol yng Nghymru
Census reveals extent of support for Non-Conformist church in Wales

1852

Adeiladwyd Doc y Gogledd.
(Bellach o dan Parc Tawe)
North Dock was built.
(now under Parc Tawe)

Toiled fflysio cyntaf
dadorchuddio yn Llundain
First flushing toilet unveiled in London

1858

Charles Darwin's
Origins of the Species published

1859

South Dock was Opened.
(now The Marina)

1861

Census records Daniel as a tinplate worker aged 13
and living at 207, Llangyfelach, Rd. Treboth

1866

An outbreak of cholera kills
521 people in Swansea.

1868

The Last Public
hanging in Britain

1871

First public library in Swansea is opened.

Daniel (now 23) marries Ann Hopkins aged 21

1876

Scotsman Alexander bell invents Telephone

Primary Education
Made compulsory

1881

Prince of Wales Dock is Built on the East Bank of the Tawe.

1885

Daniel James Publishes
'Caneuon Gwyrosydd'

1887

Invention of the Gramophone.

Swansea's Victoria Park opens.

Ann dies aged 38 leaving Daniel with 5 children to bring up.

1888

Daniel James Remarries.

1891

Death of Queen Victoria

1892

Second book of poems published which includes Calon Lan

Key Events in Daniel James' life and corresponding local and World events